

Mindfulness Based Stress and Anxiety Program

4 Week Group Program

Starting Wednesday 11th March 2020

Mindfulness is a gentle but powerful way of learning to pay attention. This program is an introduction to the practice of informal and formal mindfulness to help reduce stress and manage anxiety.

In this 4 week group, you will learn how to become more aware of how your mind works, acknowledge when unhelpful thought and behavior patterns arise, and learn strategies to assist with intense feelings and sensations in the body associated with stress and anxiety.

Dates: 4 x 1.5 hour sessions: Wednesday March 11th, 18th, 25th and April 1st 2020

Time: 10.30am-12pm

Venue: Anxiety Recovery Centre Victoria, 292 Canterbury Road, Surrey Hills

Fee: $80 / $60 ARCVic Members
